Member of 242.Group

242.Group is a dynamic collective of brands that specialise in events, expos, and promotional merchandise. With over 12 years of industry experience, we've grown into a leading provider of A-Z event services. From expert planning and logistical coordination to audio-visual services and branded solutions, we cover it all.

As top event organisers in Malta, we are committed to creating unforgettable experiences. Whether it's a casual team-building day by the pool, a formal dinner, or an international conference, we ensure your event is a success - no matter the size or complexity.

Why events?

The company name tells you all you need to know! MYeventplanner is a full-service event logistics and marketing company offering A-Z planning for your next event, whether a large-scale corporate function, a team-building adventure or any kind of event we can dream up together.

Established in 2013, our dynamic team now offers both experience and energy - the two most crucial ingredients in event planning. With head offices in Malta and Cyprus and satellite offices across Europe, the Middle East, Africa and North and South America, we are able to provide localised event experiences all over the world!

Our business model

Over the years, we have built strong relationships with several partnering venues, suppliers, and service providers. Our approach, however, is unique; when engaging our services, we provide them with no extra charges or planning fees. This does not mean the costs are up-marked to make up for the fee - on the contrary, we are able to put together an event of higher quality at better prices than through client direct contact. We are proud to say that, over the years, this formula shaped the MYeventplanner team into the worldwide success story you see today.

How we work.

We keep the process clear but make sure to stay flexible throughout:

01/ Venue Consultancy

We work with hundreds of venues in Malta, Cyprus and across the globe, one of which will most definitely fit in with your event vision

02/ We Organise

Product launches, gala receptions, seminars and conferences, staff events, awards nights, team-building events, B2B and B2C networking events, weddings, social events - you name it.

03/ We Give More.

Branding and merchandising, marketing, photography and polaroid photography, videography, logistics, transport services, furniture rental, outstanding and unique entertainment, sound and lighting, any event staff including barmen or waiters, security, RSVP communication and follow up, VIPs hosting, catering, and more.

Our team can...

Provide A-Z planning for your next event, including logistics and ancillary services to ensure an unforgettable experience for your clients or staff, including unexpected and outstanding forms of entertainment!
